

Dyslexia Sparks Appointment

What to expect when you come to meet us

Why am I coming to see you?

- Your parent knows that you find some things tricky at school
- They have asked us to meet you to find out what things might really help you to feel more confident and happier at school

Where will I be going?

- This is our Hull Office
- It is an old school

Where will I be going?

- We are Office 9
- This is our entrance

What does it look like inside?

- This is our waiting area – you can take a seat while you wait

What does the room look like?

- This is the room we will be working in

Who am I working with?

- My name is Jane
- I work with people to help them reach their targets
- I work with people of all ages – from 6 to 60!

What are we going to be doing?

- We will be doing some activities to see what things you like
- I also want to find out if there are things you find tricky at school

Is it like a school test?

- No – the activities we do are very different to school
- We do some reading and spelling, but lots of games too
- Most people find that they have fun and enjoy it!

How long will it take?

- We will normally need about 2 hours, but we take lots of breaks to make sure you don't get tired
- Most people say that the time goes by very fast!

Can my parent come in with me?

- We normally find it's easier to concentrate if we do our work just the two of us
- If you really want your parent to stay, we can let them stay for a little while until you feel happy for them to wait in the waiting area

DYSLEXIA SPARKS

- We understand that most people feel a little nervous the first time they come to meet us
- We hope this information has helped you to feel a little less nervous
- I look forward to meeting you soon!
